RG104 E-1 Box 157

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., April 1, *188*9.

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,

Superintendent U. S. Mint,

Philadelphia.

Sir:

With reference to yours of the 29th ultimo, I do not feel disposed to act in so important a matter until I have had an opportunity of consulting you in person at the mint, and can look into the matter there.

I trust that the introduction of new electric-lighting ap--pliances is of no immediate importance, and question whether anything ought to be done until the improvements in construction are finished.

Respectfully yours,

Jno. J. Knox

Director of the Mint.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 157

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
April 1, 1889

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,
Superintendent U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia.

Sir:

With reference to yours of the 29th ultimo, I do not feel disposed to act in so important a matter until I have had an opportunity of consulting you in person at the mint, and can look into the matter there.

I trust that the introduction of new electric-lighting appliances is of no immediate importance, and question whether anything ought to be done until the improvements in construction are finished.

Respectfully yours,
James P. Kimball
Director of the Mint.